The Queensland Memory Awards

The Queensland Memory Awards recognise past and future contributions of individuals and organisations in the investigation, preservation, and celebration of Queensland’s memory – past and present – through residencies, fellowships and awards.

Awards recognise outstanding contributions made to advance our understanding of Queensland’s cultural heritage. Awards are given annually to individuals and local community organisations for distinction and innovation in the documenting and sharing of Queensland’s history.

Fellowships and residencies support researchers and creatives of all kinds to interpret the significant collections of the John Oxley Library. Through deep engagement and interaction with the collections, these interpretations provide new insights into the collection and contribute new knowledge about Queensland’s history.

The Queensland Memory Awards are supported by sponsors and philanthropic donations through the Queensland Library Foundation.

HOW ARE WINNERS AWARDED?

- An independent judging panel made up of professionals with expertise in the related field access all nominations.
- Judges assess the nominees against the selection criteria.
- Judges decide on a shortlist and a successful nominee for each category.
- Judges award the nominee with the highest merit against the selection criteria as the successful applicant. Panels must decide on one successful nominee only per each award category per year.
- The judges may, at their discretion, consult with other experts to assist in evaluating the merits of each nomination.
- The outcomes of the judging process are final, and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into regarding decisions or the judging process.
- Judges may choose not to award a category if there are no nominations of suitable merit.
- The names of the judges will be published at the conclusion of the judging process.
- Judges must disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest as soon as they become aware of them. State Library of Queensland records all conflicts of interest, perceived, potential and actual. The conflict of interest is managed by the State Library.
