Copyright information for teachers

This research guide is designed for individual use by students.

Please note, due to licensing arrangements, State Library's subscription databases and eBooks are for private research and study purposes only. They may not be used as teaching resources in classroom environments in schools or other educational institutions and students must not be required to access specific databases or eBooks as part of the curriculum.

Teachers can advise students on State Library's resources and encourage their use to help with their studies and research. Students are encouraged to access State Library's resources at school, but not during class time.

Teachers are most welcome to advise students what is available via State Library, and to encourage students to make use of eBooks and databases to help with their studies. It is permissible for a teacher to demonstrate the use of State Library's catalogue, and to point out how various online material can be accessed.

It is also permissible for students to access State Library's online resources at school – but this must not be during class time. An example of permitted use might be where students have a spare period when they work on assignments or homework, and they are accessing databases as private members of the State Library. Information about joining the State Library is here.

Please also note that State Library has digitised a range of material such as diaries, and out of copyright publications held in our collections. There are no restrictions on the use of this material as part of a teaching program – and no requirement to be a member of the library to use this material. They are easily findable searching our catalogue using the "SLQ digitised collections" option in the dropdown menu.

For easy reference

Oxford Reference spans 25 different subject areas, bringing together 2 million digitised entries across Oxford University Press's dictionaries, companions, and encyclopedias.

The screenshot shows the Oxford Reference website. At the top, the 'Oxford Reference' logo is on the left, and a search bar is on the right. Below the logo, there are navigation tabs for 'Subject' and 'Reference Type'. On the right side of the header, there are links for 'My Content (1)' and 'My Searches (2)'. A 'Back to Results' link is visible on the left. The main content area features a book cover for 'The Oxford Companion to Australian Politics' by Brian Galligan and Winsome Roberts. To the right of the cover, the title and authors are listed, along with publication details: Publisher: Oxford University Press, Print ISBN-13: 9780195555431, Current Online Version: 2008, Print Publication Date: 2007, Published online: 2008, and eISBN: 9780191735202. On the left side of the main content area, there is a 'Signed in as:' section for 'State Library of Queensland' with an 'AUTOMATICALLY SIGNED IN' status and a 'Sign in to an additional subscriber account' button. A 'Search within work' field is also present.

The Britannica Library has articles, images and more, with a selection of resources especially for teenagers.

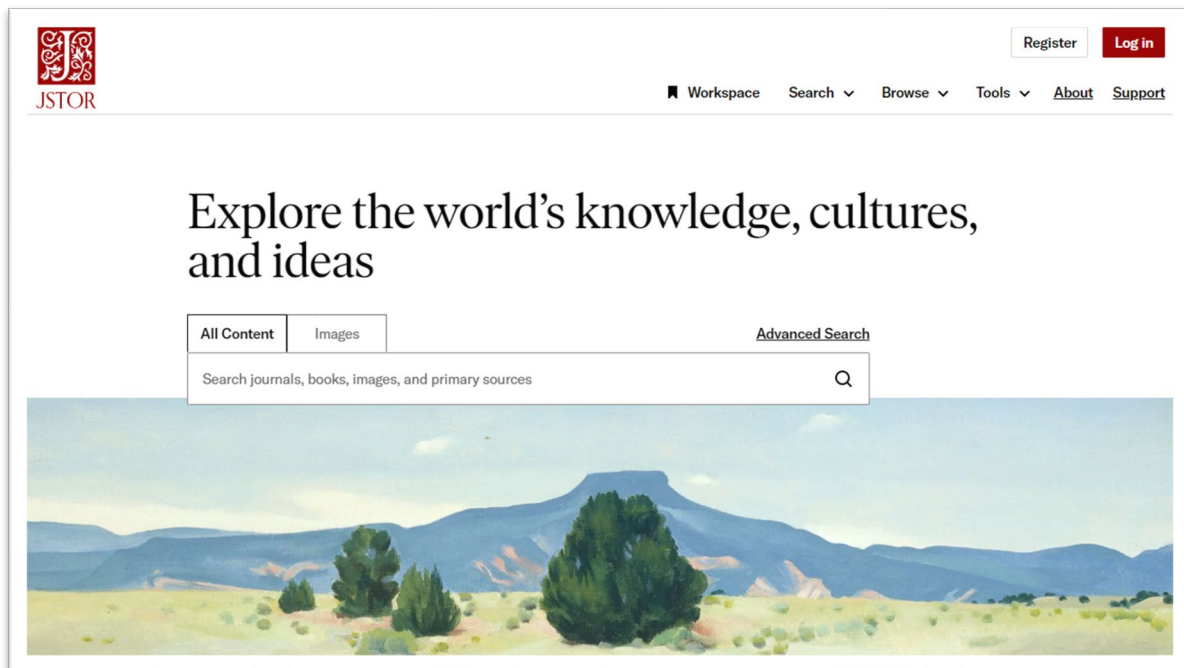

The screenshot shows the Britannica Library Teens website. The header features the '250 Britannica Library Teens' logo on the left, a search bar on the right, and a menu icon. The main content area is dominated by a large graphic of the Australian Aboriginal flag (black, red, and white horizontal stripes with a yellow sun in the center). Below the graphic, the title 'Australian Aboriginal peoples' is displayed. To the left of the title is a 'TABLE OF CONTENTS' section with a list of topics: 'Introduction', 'Origins and Beliefs', 'Traditional Culture', and 'European Contact and Cultural Change'. To the right of the title are several interactive icons: a share icon, a star icon, a print icon, an email icon, a globe icon, a speaker icon, a plus icon, and a minus icon. Below the title, there are tabs for 'Article', 'Images & Videos', and 'Related'.
