

Company and individual/company director due diligence for GRAIL non-member agencies

State Library of Queensland's Government Research and Information Library (GRAIL) provides the following fee-based due diligence service for non-member agencies within Queensland Government.

Company and individual/company director due diligence requests take several forms and will be subject to negotiation with clients prior to the commencement of any searches.

If you require searches in addition to those detailed below, or variations, please include this in your request.

Please submit all due diligence requests using our online request form.

Please note that client agencies are responsible for notifying and/or seeking permission from people and companies who are the subject of due diligence searches if appropriate.

GRAIL does NOT perform criminal history checks. The Queensland Police Service can provide National Police Certificates (Australia wide Criminal History checks). More information is available on their website.

All due diligence searches are treated confidentially**

Turnaround times	Service Cost (GST exclusive)
Normal response time is 5 business days . If your request is urgent or you require a response sooner, please contact GRAIL on 3842 9660 or email: grail@slq.qld.gov.au .	Due diligence services are charged at $180 for the first hour and $90 per 30-minute increment thereafter . Additional charges apply for each report provided. Costs for each report are listed on the following pages. All costs will be invoiced on completion of request.
