A social story

Using this social story

You can read this story before you come to The Corner.

It will tell you what you might see, hear or feel.

This story is for everyone.

It might not cover all you need it to.

You can create your own story too.

If you need to, you can call or email State Library of Queensland to ask questions.

Today, I am going to The Corner!

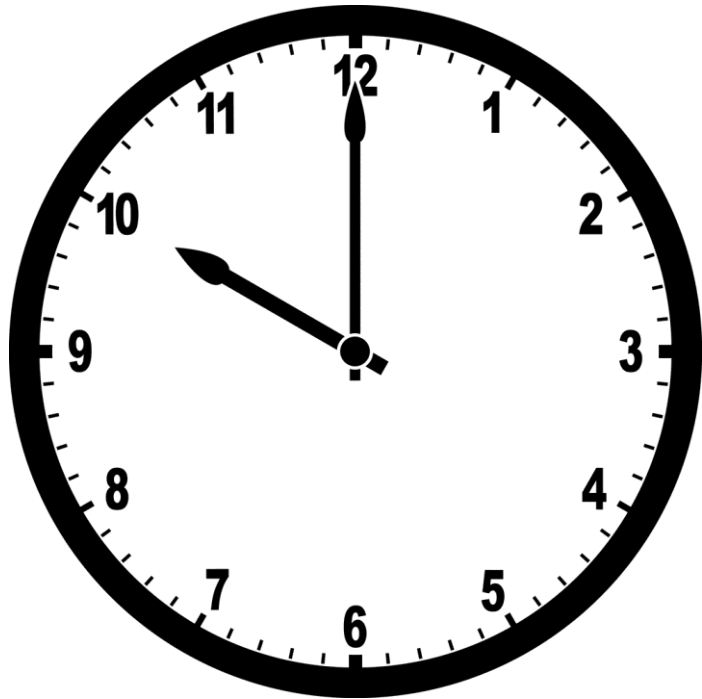

I go through the Infozone.

There are lots of people on computers here!

I can wave hello to State Library staff.
They wear black shirts and rainbow lanyards.

It is 10am.

I can sit on a rug or a cushion.

There are other people next to me. I might not know them.

It is okay if I feel crowded. I can ask my adult to help me find more space.

Everyone is waiting. Soon the staff will greet us.

I hear the Hello Song. I can sing along.

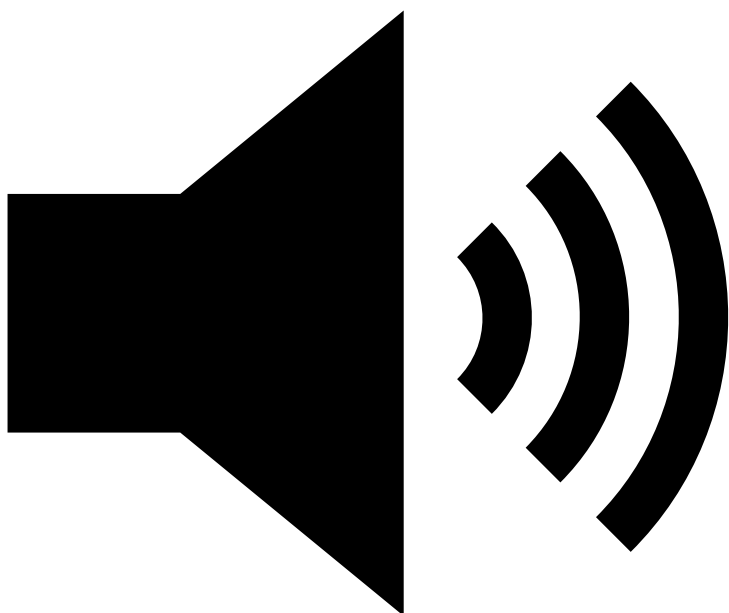

We acknowledge the Country we are on.

We sing, dance and read.

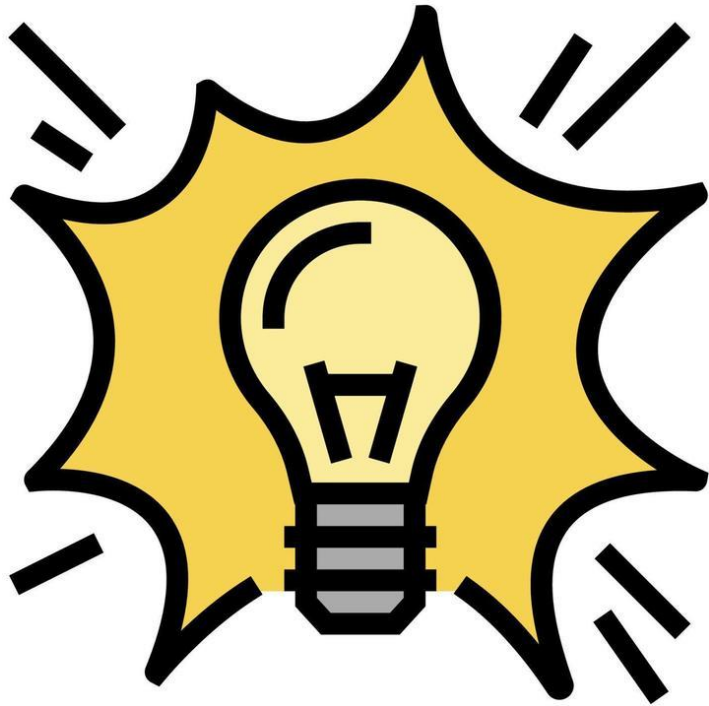

It might be loud.

I can wear headphones.

It might be bright.

I can wear sunglasses.

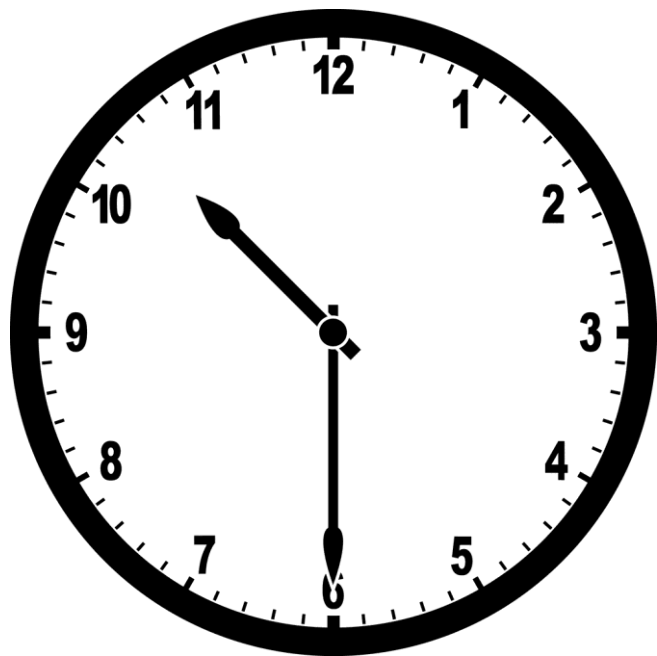

I can move to a quiet space. kuril dhagun is quiet.

On Wednesdays we sing in kuril dhagun.

It is 10.30am.

It is play time!

I can play.

I can read.

I can make.

Someone wants to play with these toys!
I can take turns.

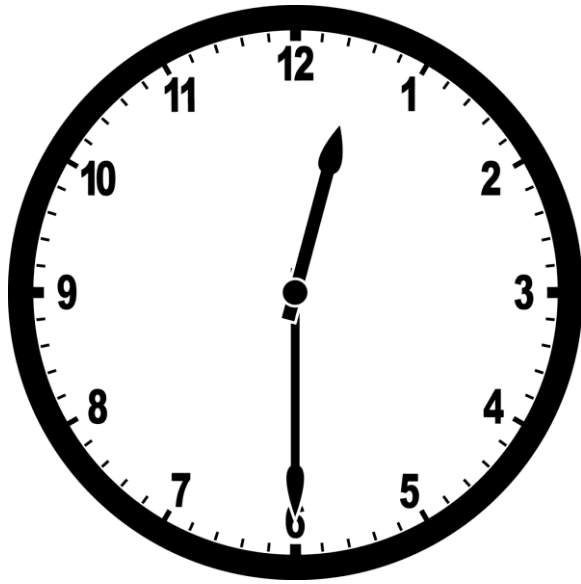

I can ask State Library staff for help if I can't find my adult.

I can wash my hands in the Carers room.

We can go to the toilet here. We can heat food too.

It is 12.30 pm.

It is pack up time.

I put my library books away.

I can read them next time I am at the library.

Staff put toys away.

We can play with them next time.

It is time to go now. I can come back another day.
